M. Gragston, Sunday.—Mr. Samuel Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Riggs and sister, Miss Myrtle, visited in Cleveland, Thursday evening to Sunday.

CORRESPONDENTS must mail all letters for publication at their main postoffice sufficiently early on Sunday or Monday of each week to have them reach The Gazette office on Tuesday morning, and always write their names and that of their city or town on the outside of the wrapper about returned copies, if proper credit for them is desired. Lists of names, wedding presents, programs, obituary notices, inquiries for relatives and advertisement of all kinds, including items announcing entertainment to be held in the near future, must be paid for in advance at the rate of 20 cents a line, six words to a line. Our rates for display advertisements will be sent on application.

HEAR! HEAR!!

The ROUNDER WHAT'S DOING!

Republicans of the 17th ward are organizing a Republican club that is to function fully with the Republican organization. Bundy's 17th Ward Republican club is not satisfactory, it seems. The same goes for the councilman.

"The Blossom Triplets" (Councilmen George, Payne and Bundy) have been having a series of parties in recent weeks all of which were failures or near-failures. Instead of "socializing," it seems to "the rounder" that they had better be trying to get employment for some of their constituents since so very many of them are so sorely in need of work in order to provide food and pay house-rent for themselves and their families.

The editor of The Gazette suggests that the Rounder announce that Eugene Cheeks requests "The Old Reliable" (Gazette) to say, this week, that he has not been succeeded as manager of The Call-Post by Ormond Forte but that he is still editor and manager of the paper. It is said that Forte, who is employed at the city garbage plant, and Bob Reynolds of the street-department are to be replaced by organization Republicans, soon after election day in November because both of them opposed the organization, in last fall's campaign. This should have been done, the first of the year, many of the unemployed regular Republicans are looking forward with the hope that these and other like openings will pave the way to good jobs for them. Let us hope so.

There is a real amusing story going the rounds relative to one of our councilmen, whose "head is swelled" to double its normal size. It seems he went down to the court house, recently, and "demanded" several positions of one of four Republican county officials. His talk and manner were both unnecessarily offensive, and his attention was called to the fact by said official. Of course, he didn't get what he "demanded," and that isn't the worst of it—he isn't going to! Yes, he is one of "The Blossom Triplets", for the election of whom all of their constituents in the third and fourth councilmanic districts will have to do penance. It was the greatest mistake all of us ever made.

Wonder if Councilman Bundy has forgotten just when the council meets?

STATEMENT

Of the Ownership, Management, Etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

Of The Gazette, published weekly at Cleveland, Ohio, for October 1, 1930.

State of Ohio, County of Cuyahoga, ss.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared Harry C. Smith, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the owner of The Gazette and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the name and address of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business manager is: Harry C. Smith, 226 W. Superior Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

2. That the owner is: Harry C. Smith.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: There are none.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

Harry C. Smith.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 1st day of October, 1930.

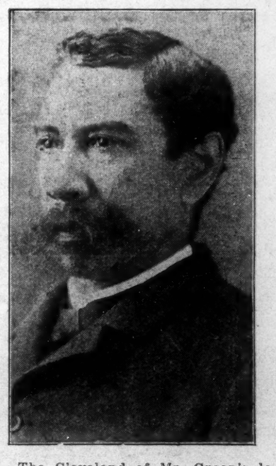
(Seal) Paul Apple, Notary Public.

(My commission expires Sept. 26, 1933.)

Mrs. Ida Anderson, visiting in Hillsboro, was highly entertained, last and this week.

FOR SIXTY YEARS A GOOD LAWYER.

To practice law for 60 years and remain an optimist is an achievement. That's what John P. Green has done. Beginning his career at the bar in 1870 this young Cleveland attorney still likes to talk matters over with juries. And a surprising proportion of these juries over the years have agreed with what Green told them.



The Cleveland of Mr. Green's legal debut had fewer than 100,000 people, and no one dared even dream that the city would some day overtake Cincinnati and become the state's metropolis. We were grouped pretty closely about the Square and a few miles took one into the country. Without ever becoming a boom town the city Green first knew as a lawyer has multiplied itself by more than nine and finds the youngster of that day still laboring in his chosen field.

A successful attorney and a good citizen, John P. Green may not have another 60 years of service at the Cleveland bar, but it won't be his spirit or his industry that keeps him from it.—Editorial in The Cleveland Daily Plain Dealer, Sept. 20, '30.

The dean of the Cleveland Bar was 86 years old, Sept. 20, '30, and the oldest attorney in the city trying cases before juries. Mr. Samuel Mather, generally known as "the first citizen of Cleveland," and John D. Rockefeller, Sr., were classmates in Mr. Green's early youth. The ex-state senator is the father of Ohio's "Labor Day," the first Monday in September, each year, and the first such holiday in any state of this country. He has tried fifty-five murder cases and lost but one, and has been abroad four times, being presented to Pope Pius X, on one of these trips; has written several books and recently finished a 159,000-word English translation of one of his favorite French books. Mr. Green has attended church, every Sunday morning, without being late for almost thirty years, and is senior warden of St. Andrew's P. E. church.

OPEN AT LAST!

Four of Our Girls Enter the Nurse's Training Class at City Hospital —Three Year Fight Won.

Our student nurses were finally admitted to the Nurses' Training school at City Hospital, and for the first time, last week when a class of forty-one girls began a three-year training period. They are Coral McDonald, 2314 E. 101st St.; Edna K. Wooley, 4915 Portland Ave.; Mary Collins, 8934 Quincy Ave., and Grace Rice, 26 Leroy Ave. It was nearly a year ago, after a bitter fight of several years, which "The Old Reliable" Gazette led, that the City Council passed Dr. Walz's resolution ordering equal opportunities for our people, at City Hospital, as nurses, internes, or student nurses. These four student nurses are our first to take advantage of the opportunity offered. All passed the regular health examination, and presented high school records showing grades averaging 80 per cent or better, according to Mrs. Estella Koch, superintendent of nurses at the hospital. Student-nurses during their three years' course receive no pay, but each will be given a "pin-money" allowance of $10 a month. The training is free.

BANKER BINGA MISSING!

The Failure of The Binga State Bank Recalls That of The Standard Life Insurance Co. of Atlanta.

Chicago, Ill.—A warrant for the arrest of Jesse Binga, president of the Binga State Bank, which was closed by the state auditor in August, was sworn out here, recently, by Walter Kelly, well-known policy king. The warrant charged larceny by bailee. The swearing out of the warrant is due to the uncertain knowledge of Binga's affairs which has prevailed since the closing of the bank. Kelly is reported to have purchased $12,500 worth of stock in a proposed national bank which Binga was organizing last year. This bank has so far failed to materialize. Since the closing of the state bank, some of the purchasers of stock in the national bank have become apprehensive about the money they invested in its stock. Kelly's suit was started to find out where his money is and to seek its return, if possible. Officers intrusted with the Binga warrant have so far been forced to list him among the "missing bankers."

STRODE, BLACK AND WHITE ARE ARRESTED!

J. Wilbur Strode, 2187 E. 85th St., assistant secretary and teller of the Empire Savings & Loan Co., E. 55th St. and Central Ave., late Monday, told police that he had embezzled $4,180, since last April, by cashing bad checks for a well-known lottery promoter, according to Deputy Inspector Sweeney. Strode confessed his embezzlement after being arrested, police said. It is alleged the teller was paid $25 a week by the lottery promoter under an agreement that he would cash checks until the lottery began making money. Strode received only a small part of the money he is alleged to have embezzled, police said. Rueben Black and Luther White, of the Credential Bond & Mortgage Co., were arrested, Tuesday, in connection with the foregoing, and Wednesday night were trying to arrange for bail in order to regain their liberty, Thursday morning. J. Walter Wills, Sr., who as vice-president succeeded to the presidency of the Empire Savings & Loan Co., on the death, recently, of President Herbert S. Chauncey, said, Tuesday night, that the $4180 loss was amply covered by bond and that the E. S. & L. Co.'s operation was not affected.

ATTENTION! COUNCILMEN.

One of "The Blossom Triplets'" Constituents Charges Unfair Discrimination Is Practiced in The State-City Employment Service.

Office of The Gazette.
Cleveland, Sept. 26, '30.

Sup't. B. C. Seiple,
State-City Employment Service,
City Hall, City.

Friend Seiple:—The enclosure is self-explanatory. You will in all probability recall my writing you, a year or so ago, as the result of similar complaints. In order to get at the bottom of it, permit me to suggest that you quietly "check up" on the Baldwin charges and learn just what the real condition is having relation to each one of the charges in the enclosure.

I would like to know the result and trust you will write me promptly.

With best wishes, I am
Sincerely yours,
Harry C. Smith.

"The Enclosure."
Cleveland, Sept. 24, '30.

Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor Gazette, Cleveland, O.

Dear Mr. Smith:—Certain conditions in the State-City Employment Service at City Hall disturb my peace of mind, from which I would not infer justice was being practiced. Several times when I had occasion to go there, we were told to sit in the rear of the room, whereas the white persons seeking employment there had the privilege of sitting toward the front. Councilmen should look into this condition and the aid of the press should be solicited in the riddance of this unfairness in this branch of our city's service. As it is, much prejudice and malice is shown. Our people are offered jobs with weekly pay of only five dollars. One hears this over the phone:

"I cannot get you a white girl for five dollars but I can send you a colored girl."

Yet when $18 a week is offered to either white or colored by the employer, a white girl is sent.

Will you please look into this matter, Mr. Smith? (You bet!—Editor.)

A. R. Baldwin,
4117 Central Ave.

Americans Abroad!

U. S. Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch in his speech, Monday to local Republican precinct workers, said American capital invested in foreign countries increased from $2,000,000,000 in 1913 to $15,000,000,000 in 1928 and $26,000,000,000 in 1930 and that American factories in foreign countries increased from 200 in 1928 to 1,200 in 1930. He declared Henry Ford was manufacturing all his tractors in Cork, Ireland, where he employed 30,000 men at a maximum wage of $1 a day, and that tractors thus made in Ireland were being shipped into the United States duty free as agricultural implements. He also cited a large number of plants in foreign countries established by General Motors.

"PAUL ROBESON, THE SOCIAL LION"!

Ellen von Volkenberg Tells of Our Leading Actor and Singer's Wonderful Success on the Stage in London, England.

"Paul Robeson, Afro-American actor and singer, is the social lion of London."

Ellen von Volkenberg, the Battle Creek girl who made good in the big city of London, sat on the skyscraper-top of the Tavern Club, looking down at the Chicago, where she struggled so long for recognition, and as she looked she talked.

Robeson Social Lion.

"Last spring I produced (in London, England)—'Othello' with Paul Robeson, the Afro-American singer, in the title role, and with Peggy Ashcroft, one of the rarest of British beauties, as Desdemona. Paul captured London—particularly its society. Only last week I had a letter from our (London) office saying that the dean of Canterbury had entertained Paul and his wife—she is an expert chemist, and his business manager—over the week-end and that the dean had almost wept listening to Robeson sing 'Negro' spirituals without accompaniment in the twilight. Paul lives in the suburbs close beside John Galsworthy. Shaw, Wells—all of them entertain Robeson and receive him as a brother artist.

"London's critics praise Robeson highly. His speaking voice is almost as beautiful as his singing. Once I asked him 'Did you always sing?' and he answered, 'No, when I was 12 years old my brothers and sisters told me to keep quiet because I growled when I sang. My voice was always too heavy for house-singing until I learned to hold it in.'

Holds Scholastic Honor.

"Robeson had trouble with the whole third act of 'Othello.' Being very gentle and scholarly—he's a Phi Beta Kappa—he could not at first strike the note of jealous rage that is necessary in this act. Finally I sent the rest of the cast away from the rehearsal room and told him to 'go the limit.' He was superb, such native force as you cannot imagine, volcanic anger. During the run this act was his best—the applause terrific.

"I am returning to London this fall, where I will have charge of the Subscription theater—another 'little theater'—for our corporation. I will produce five plays, and Mr. Browne (her husband) will produce at least that many in the Globe theater."—Lloyd Lewis (white) in The Chicago Daily News.

Doings of the Race

Roland Hayes, the tenor soloist, denies the rumor that he plans to relinquish his American citizenship.

Our second group of Gold Star mothers, who visited the graves of their dead soldier relatives in France, returned to this country on Sept. 16.

Jefferson S. Coage of Wilmington, Del., second deputy under Recorder of Deeds Arthur G. Froe of Welch, W. Va., succeeded to the recordership of the District of Columbia, last week, on appointment of President Hoover.

Aaron W. Douglas, artist, Chicago, furnished a series of drawings that have been used for the mural decorations of the famous "college inn" room of the old Sherman House, Chicago. They are "exceptionally good," writes an authority on art.

ALLIED CLUBS' MEET.

Officers Elected—Resolutions Adopted—To Meet in Akron, Next Year—Another "Jim-Crow" School.

Columbus, O.—The State Allied Afro-American Republican clubs' representatives met here, Sunday, in the "Y," and elected the following officers: Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming of Cleveland (re-elected) pres.; Dr. C. E. Lewis of Akron and Capt. Leroy H. Godman, vice-pres.; Mr. Harry Alexander, sec., and Mrs. F. H. Butler, treas. Nearly forty delegates were in attendance and adopted a strong set of resolutions endorsing the state and local Republican tickets, denouncing lynching and segregation, and advocating equal rights, opportunities and privileges. Next annual meeting, at Akron, June 3, '31.—The local school board gave our people a disagreeable surprise when schools re-opened, last month, by adding a second "jim-crow" school. The first one was the Champion Ave. school. The latest one, the Mt. Vernon Ave. (23d St.) school, is the second insult. The board at a recent secret meeting made a shoe-string district for this school which includes much of our residential sections of Columbus. Our people have organized to fight the disgraceful segregation, with Rev. J. S. Jackson, former Cleveland and Cincinnati A. M. E. pastor, as their leader.

Dr. R. R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial institute, said recently in an address at Waveland, Miss., that the future outlook of the race is good. When one considers the way our people are going, in about everything, and at what rate they are speeding on their way, he cannot help feeling that the doctor is wearing some mighty strong optimistic glasses, these days, when he looks into the future of his race.

George Davis (white), dramatic critic of The Cleveland Daily Press, in his review of "Scarlet Sister Mary" at a local theater, this week, and starring Ethel Barrymore, possibly the leading American actress, a play about "Gullah" Negroes of South Carolina, among other things says:

"A company of blacked up Caucasians appearing as Negroes can't stand comparison with a company of well-directed Negro actors such as those in 'Porgy' or in 'Hallelujah'."

AGREED!

The failure of Jesse Binga's State bank in Chicago, some weeks ago, and the subsequent events in connection therewith remind one greatly of the failure, several years ago, of the Standard Life Insurance Co., of Atlanta. Both the bank and the insurance company were looked upon as possibly our leading successes of their time and were pointed to as such frequently by many of our people. Their distressing failures are all but heart-rending from a racial business-viewpoint. It seems that too many of our so-called leading men will not permit their successful business enterprises to exist for very long.

Ella von Volkenberg, (white), the Michigan girl who has had such wonderful stage success in London, tells us that:

"Paul Robeson lives in the suburbs of London, England, close beside John Galsworthy, Shaw and Wells, (great English writers who are known thruout the world), all of whom entertain Robeson and his wife, and receive him as a brother artist."

What a sermon in a sentence to the great American people many of whom are warped and narrowed to an extraordinary degree by an absolutely inexcusable racial prejudice which all but surpasses that of any other country on the face of the globe. Every American home ought to have in it the portion of Lloyd Lewis' interview with Miss. von Volkenberg, published elsewhere in this paper. It ought to prove a most effective leven.

Charles W. Mitchell, for many years business manager of W. Va. State College at Institute, was appointed minister to Liberia, Africa, last week, by President Herbert Hoover. "Brother" Mitchell sure has his courage with him, since so many U. S. ministers to that country have died of African fever. His immediate predecessor, Atty. Wm. T. Francis of St. Paul, Minn., "passed away" that way, early this year. President Hoover will have to do something in the way of recognition, better than this, for our people. The pay of the U. S. minister to Liberia is only $5000 a year, the lowest salary of any diplomatic representative in the service of this country. The President and Secretary-of-State Henry L. Stimson are urging the passage of a bill by the Congress to increase the pay to $10,000 a year.

In a recent release of "The Negro Labor-News Service," N. Y. City, Frank R. Crosswaith, usually a very interesting and fairly reliable writer, makes the following most unfortunate statement:

"A northern Negro looks down with scorn and contempt upon a southern Negro, and both the northern and southern Negro look with alien eyes full of hate and suspicion upon a brother from the West Indies or other part of the world."

The foregoing may be true in New York City, Mr. Crosswaith's home-town, but it is not generally true, and this fact is generally known and recognized. We are greatly surprised, that even if he thot what he has written, that he would undertake to give general circulation to a statement that would have a tendency to make bad matters worse, if they were as he claims in his misstatement. Stop it, Mr. Crosswaith!

WHICH IS THE PREVARICATOR?

At a meeting of the East End Republican club, last week Tuesday evening, Charles White in addressing the organization made the misstatement that The Gazette's recent article on Alex. H. Martin's disloyal course (to the race) in a meeting of that organization, some months ago, when Mr. Emmett Meade introduced a resolution placing it squarely in favor of the ousting of the then Color-line Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom, was not true. The morning after the meeting Mr. Meade told the editor of The Gazette, in its office, that Martin's talk had caused the defeat of his resolution and that he (Martin) had "talked it to death." Now comes Charles White, many months afterward, to flatly contradict Mr. Meade. Since only one of them can be correct, the question is, which one is telling the truth? We believe Mr. Meade, an old resident of Cleveland, successful business man and an aggressively loyal member of the race whose reputation for truthfulness has never been questioned. Mr. White, a young man, practically a newcomer to Cleveland, should be more careful in contradicting a person of Mr. Meade's standing in this community. In our judgment Martin was and is guilty, and as we have said several times in recent months, has forfeited any right to the support of our loyal people of this community by the disloyal act in question. The result of his candidacy, this fall, for a position on the common pleas bench will prove this, too.

GETTING IRRITATING.

Col. Leonard P. Ayers, a vice-president of the Cleveland Trust Co. and nationally known business statistician, had another of his many predictions in Thursday morning's local daily papers. There is one thing we have to give the Colonel credit for, and that is, he has been consistent in these predictions of an early revival of business for nearly five years. Now, he tells us that "1931 will be a year of progressive business recovering." Heretofore, the revival of business, all sought and still seek, was either "just around the corner" or very near, the Colonel would say, among many other things of an encouraging nature. The trouble is that during this period, the past five years, we have looked and waited more or less patiently for said revival of business, but in vain. Neither the "Coolidge Good Times" nor the "Hoover Prosperity" have materialized as yet, and the outlook is anything but encouraging, to say the least. We are not finding fault with the Colonel for saying encouraging things, even if they didn't come true, but just the same the continued reiteration of his prediction of an early revival of business is becoming just a little irritating.

UNFAIR AND UNJUST.

Editor, Cleveland Daily News:—A person reading the report of the committee of the Cleveland Bar association on judicial candidates cannot but be impressed that so far as Judge John A. Cline is concerned that the report is most unfair and unjust. I happened to be in public office when Judge Cline was prosecuting attorney of the county and never has that office been conducted with greater ability and efficiency. When he took up private practice he soon made his mark as one of the leading lawyers at the bar. His election as president of the State Bar association was a public recognition of his eminent standing in his profession. His honesty, ability, his courage have never been questioned. It does not lie in the province of any set of men to try to prejudice the public against a man of his character and fitness.

OHIO'S MOB VIOLENCE ACT

OR ANTI-LYNCHING LAW LEADS THE COUNTRY IN EFFECTIVE LEGISLATION

Against the Mob and Lynch-Murder—Three Years' Work of a Member of the Race—Also His Ohio Civil Rights Law.

Our mob-violence or anti-lynching bill was introduced in the Ohio legislature in 1894 and re-introduced in 1896. It took the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, just three years to secure its enactment into law. The Ohio Supreme Court has several times upheld the constitutionality of the law and it has been very effective. Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have followed Ohio's lead and enacted mob violence or anti-lynching laws which are copies of our Ohio law. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws, in recent years, like Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Ohio law follows:

MOBS.

Section
6278. "Mob" and "lynching" defined.
6279. "Serious injury" defined.
6280. Damages in case of assault.
6281. Damages in case of lynching.
6282. Damages recoverable by legal representative of victim of lynching
6283. Person suffering death or injury by mob trying to lynch another.
6284. Limitations of action.
6285. Order to include recovery and costs in tax levy.
6286. Guardian's custody, etc., fees.
6287. County's right of action against member of mob
6288. County's right of action against another county.
6289. Non-relief from prosecution.

Section 6278. A collection of people assembled for an unlawful purpose and intending to do damage or injury to any one, or pretending to exercise correctional power over other persons by violence and without authority of law, shall be deemed a "mob" for the purpose of this chapter. An act of violence by a mob upon the body of any person shall constitute a "lynching" within the meaning of this chapter. (93 v. 161 2.)

Section 6279. The term "serious injury," for the purpose of this chapter, shall include such inquiry as permanently or temporarily disables the person receiving it from earning a livelihood by manual labor. (93 v. 161 3.)

Section 6280. A person taken from officers of justice by a mob and assaulted with whips, clubs, missiles or in any other manner, may recover, as hereafter provided, a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars as damages from the county in which the assault is made. (93 v. 161 4.)

Section 6281. A person assaulted and lynched by a mob may recover, from the county in which such assault is made a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars; or, if the injury received therefrom is serious, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars; or, if such injury result in permanent disability, to earn a livelihood by manual labor, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars. (93 v. 12 5.)

Section 6282. The legal representative of a person dying from injuries received from lynching by a mob, may recover of the county in which such injury occurred, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars damages for such unlawful killing. Such sum shall be applied to the maintenance of the family and education of the minor children of such person so lynched, if any survive him, until such children are of legal age, and then be distributed to the survivors, share and share alike, the widow receiving an amount equal to a child's share. If there be no widow or minor children surviving such decedent, such sum shall be distributed among the next of kin according to the laws of the distribution of the personality of an intestate. Such sum so recovered shall not be a part of the estate of such person so lynched, nor be subject to any of his liabilities. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6283. A person suffering death or injury from a mob attempting to lynch another person shall come within the provisions of this chapter. He or his legal representatives shall have a like right of action as one purposely injured or killed by such a mob. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6284. Action for the recoveries provided for in this chapter must be commenced, within two years from the date of such lynching, in any court having original jurisdiction of an action for damages for malicious assault. (93 v. 162 7.)

Section 6285. An order to the commissioners of a county, against which such recovery is had, to include it with the costs of action, in the next succeeding tax levy for such county, shall be a part of the judgment in every such case. (93 v. 162 8.)

Section 6286. If the decedent so lynched has minor children surviving him, the fund shall be turned over to a regularly appointed guardian. Such guardian shall administer such fund under the direction of the probate judge, allowing not more than five hundred dollars for counsel fees in the action for such recovery. (93 v. 162 9.)

Section 6287. The county, in which a lynching occurs, may recover the amount of a judgment and costs against it in favor of the legal representatives of a person killed or seriously injured by a mob from any of the persons composing such mob. A person present, with hostile intent, at such lynching shall be deemed a member of the mob and be liable to such action. (93 v. 162 10.)

Section 6288. If a mob carries a prisoner into another county, or comes from another county to commit violence on a prisoner brought from such county for safekeeping, the county in which the lynching is committed may recover the amount of the judgment and costs from the county from which the mob came, unless there was contributory negligence on the part of officials of such county in failing to protect such prisoner or dispurse such mob. (93 v. 163 11.)

Section 6289. This chapter shall not relieve a person concerned in such lynching from prosecution for homicide or assault for engaging therein. (93 v. 163 12.)

OUR OHIO CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

Upon the request of many readers of The Gazette we print below the text of the Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Civil Rights law which the editor had enacted while a member of the 71st General Assembly, in 1894:

The General Code of Ohio:

Sec. 12940. Whoever, being the proprietor or his employee, keeper or manager of an inn, restaurant, eating house, barber-shop, public conveyance by land or water, theater or other place of public accommodation and amusement, denies to a citizen, except for reasons applicable alike to all citizens and regardless of race or color, the full enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both.

Sec. 12941. Whoever violates the next preceding section shall also pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundreds dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where such offense was committed.

This law has repeatedly been held constitutional and good law by the Ohio Supreme court. The trouble is our people will not use it as often as they should, but expect it to do for them what they should and must do for themselves, under it, in the courts.

Demonstration in Jewish Quarter.

Paris, France.—The Jewish Telegraphic Agency reports the center of the Paris Jewish quarter, the Carreau du Temple, was the scene, Tuesday, of an anti-Semitic incident. Six members of the royalist league "Camelots du Roy" ran through the streets shouting "down with the Jews." During the fisticuffs that followed one of the Royalists was knocked down and the others fled.

Bayonets Halt Lynching Mob.

Huntsville, Ala.—National guardsmen attacked a crowd around the Madison County jail here, Monday night, with tear gas bombs, dispersing it. The guardsmen advanced against the crowd with drawn bayonets when the group attempted to advance on the jail where G. E. Henderson is being held in connection with the slaying, Saturday night, of H. E. Ross, Huntsville business man. Some 500 persons remained at the jail but no violence was anticipated.

Prof. R. N. Dett Entertains.

Niagara Falls, N. Y.—R. Nathaniel Dett, director of the Hampton (Va.) Institute choir, which returned recently from a European tour, was one of four hundred guests at a "political tea" in Hotel Niagara, recently, in honor of Congressman and Mrs. S. Wallace Dempsey. Dr. Dett spoke and gave a number of selections of his own composition. As a boy he lived here.

Here's Instant Relief From Bunion Pains and Soft Corns

Actually Reduces the Swelling—Soft Corns Dry Right Up and Can Be Picked Off

Get a two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) today. Every well-stocked druggist has this, and it will reduce the inflammation, soreness, and pain much quicker than any remedy you ever used.

Your bunions may be so swollen and inflamed that you think you can't go another step. Your shoes may feel as if they are cutting right into the flesh. You feel sick all over with the pain and torture and pray for quick relief. What's to be done?

Two or three applications of Moone's Emerald Oil and in fifteen minutes all the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the swelling reduces.

And as for soft corns, a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off.

Druggists guarantee Moone's Emerald Oil to end your foot troubles or money back.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, use its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drug store; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

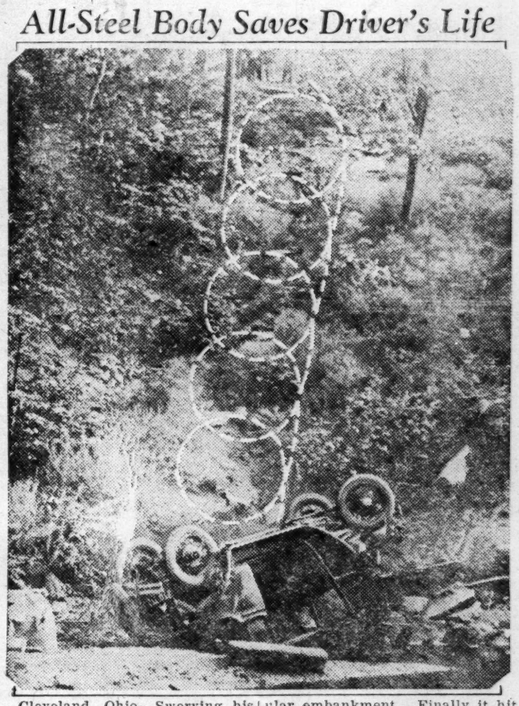
Hon. Harry C. Smith (editor of The Gazette) elected to the presidency of these United States, would be worth more in the first year, than some of the others will be in the next 40 years. The first thing he would do would be to stop lynchings. It can be done, but it takes a man with backbone and he has it. The next thing would be to have the government distilleries make pure liquor out of corn and rye, so the thousands would not be poisoned every day as they now are.—Dr. James K. Nickens in "Items on The Wing," in The Call & Post.

Shot Down by White Brutes.

Thomasville, Ga.—Lacy Mitchell, who testified, recently, in court against two white brutes charged with attacking one of our women, is dead—the victim of masked men (K. K. K.) who invaded his home and shot him. Members of his family said the murderers, white brutes, entered the house and started firing without giving any reason. County authorities are making the usual "bluff" (investigation) and have arrested several men for "questioning."

All-Steel Body Saves Driver's Life



Cleveland, Ohio—Swerving his light coupe to avoid hitting another motorist, Harry Elesson, 1921 E. 97th st., this city, crashed through the guard rails at the top of a ravine and started on a wild plunge to the creek bed, 100 feet below. Unable to stop the car, Elesson just clung to the steering wheel and awaited results. They came fast. Over the car turned—five times—on its headlong descent down the almost perpendicular embankment. Finally it hit a big rock, turned over for the last time and came to rest on its top, wheels spinning in the air. Elesson squirmed around a bit and crawled out, unhurt except for a small cut on his hand. He attributes his lucky escape and the fact that he was able to open the door and crawl out, to the all-steel body construction which prevented its caving in and crushing him.

Modern Shirtings for Both Sexes

By EMMA LOU FETTA

THERE was a time when men's and women's styles, except for horseback riding, were rarely interchangeable. But active sports in which both sexes compete have influenced the makers of fashions. Today many materials go alike to dressmakers and men's tailors.

Take shirtings, for instance. Illustrated is a new, washable, extremely strong, but soft jacquard broadcloth woven of dureped cotton. The designs, of course, have been accented in the photographing. In the material it is a smart little all-over pattern equally attractive for a man's business shirt; for a young woman's tennis frock, or for beach or house pajamas.

It would seem either a little late or a little early to talk of beach pajamas, but the season for winter vacations in warmer climates will be upon us again before we know it. Designers and manufacturers are already at work on what has become known as "Palm Beach wear", which means, of course, suitability for Florida, California, or Texas—any southern state, or any sunny foreign resort. It thus behooves the housewife who is accomplished in home dressmaking as well as she who believes in shopping early to think of new materials which will frisk along warm winter beaches.

Broadcloths—plain and jacquards—in every hue of the rainbow will be seen. When husbands are ordering shirtings for fall and winter smart women will be ordering the same materials, though perhaps in different colors or designs, for their own winter sports wear and house-work pajamas.

YOU KNOW ME, AL — One Champ, Delivered By Hand — By RING LARDNER

Dear Kid,

I see an article in the papers where you are cleaning them up in the sticks but I guess I would go big in those bush leagues too because maybe you read where when they get a run off me now somebody thinks it's Christmas. Bush started me against Brooklyn the other day and when they looked at my fast one, I thought several of them including this here Statz was going to take sick. If they didn't have their hats on tight my fast one blew them off, and I was talking to Donie about getting some catcher who can hold me so I won't have to ease up. Most of these Robins should ought to wear a rubber on their left foot when batting against me because my fast one makes them step back and keep one foot in the water pail most of the time.

Jack Keefe.

SCHOOLGIRLS GO SMARTLY CLAD IN LIGHT WOOL WEAVE AND IN JERSEY

YOUTHFUL, sensible and chic is the standard which fashion sets for schoolgirl frocks this season. Which is not at all difficult to attain now the new woolens are so amazingly light and comfortable to wear.

Three outstanding materials in the realm of campus and sorority fashions are wool crepe in rich dark colors, lacy, sheer tweed and jersey. The jersey frock for street, spectator-sports wear and for school and college dresses is an acknowledged favorite both in Paris and in American style centers. The smart shops in this country are showing various types of jersey, including an interesting new kind of knitted worsted and soft low-lustered durene cotton. This worsted-durene jersey is particularly worthy of mention since the introduction of the durened cotton makes it practically non-stretchable and non-shrinkable, wherefore it may be laundered with considerable confidence in that it is less likely to shrink than is wool alone.

Illustrated to the right is a colleg girl's frock which may also be smartly worn as a practical shopping costume. The dainty bands of immaculate white organdie at the wrists with a collar to match give it an unmistakable air of refinement, which counts for much, since "ladylike" dress is the call of the mode this season. Olive green is the color of the jersey used for the styling of this dress and a very popular new shade it is, too. The little beret is made of self-same jersey, for the fad of the moment is for hat and frock to match.

In the designing of the new fall and winter frocks emphasis is placed on the genteel and the refined as manifested in the "little things" as interpreted by the dressmaker in meticulous detail. For instance the winsome wool crepe frock to the left in the picture has the look of simplicity, but in the final analysis it becomes a shining example of dressmaker art.

EVENING MODES DECLARE REVIVAL OF STIFF SILKS SIMPLY STYLED

STIFF silks are coming into vogue again. Thus in the realm of fabrics as in all phases of the mode, old fashions are becoming new fashions. We are even going to use pile velvets again, not, however, to the exclusion of the filmy, sheer, transparent velvets which have captured the heart of the feminine world. As to satin, which has taken a new lease on life, it also shows a tendency to an increasing firmness of texture.

This favor for stiff, crisp silks is reflected in the many taffeta gowns which the couture of Paris is creating for dine and dance wear, especially for the younger set. The pretty dress in the picture is typical of the quaint and youthful styling given to taffeta. It is an entrancing French model made more so in that the designer works the taffeta in two colors—pink and blue.

This favor for rich materials is having its effect on the styling of the new gowns or is it that the adoption of formal, classic and majestic "lines" demands the more elegant weaves? Be that as it may, formal dress is declaring an era of sophisticated simplicity in which richness of fabric is made the theme paramount.

It would almost seem as if the exquisitely simple styling which is so smartly in vogue for the evening mode is resolving itself into two distinct types—the quaint old-fashioned silhouettes for the youthful party frock versus the stately and the classic for the more mature.

The former is bringing in such charming effects as the off-the-shoulder decolletage of mid-victorian days and full-all-around skirts whose hemlines are even all around. The new flowered taffetas and printed satins are "darling" made up in these "period" frocks.

As to majestic femininity it will be clad in sculpturesque gowns of Grecian inspiration. Rich materials will fall of their own weight in simple unbroken lines. Trimming will be conspicuous by its absence. The satin dress will appear to the eye utterly simple, but in actual construction, it will be a labyrinth of intricate seaming and expert fabric manipulation.

GLARING LIGHTS CAUSE ACCIDENTS

Brakes Also Blamed for Casualties Due in Many Cases to Neglect.

"An examination of winter highway accidents in this locality, covering a period of years, shows the majority of these accidents due to dazzling or ill-adjusted headlights and faulty brakes," declares H. O. Rounds, director of the safety and traffic division of the Detroit Automobile club, who has issued a warning to motorists to put this equipment in shape for the winter season.

Faulty Lights Troublesome.

"Dusk comes earlier," he said, "and the streets are filled with motorists. Glaring headlights and brakes that are not working properly constitute a menace to all. Figures compiled by ten large American cities show from 3 to 5 per cent of all night accidents traceable to faulty lights. Usually the defect was found to be glare caused by improper focus.

"Proper adjustment calls for a degree of expert knowledge, and if the owner does not know how to make the adjustment himself he should see that it is done at a place maintained or designated by local traffic authorities of the local motor club.

Brakes Cause Accidents.

"Faulty brakes cause a great percentage of the serious traffic accidents, especially in the winter time. Brakes that apparently function at other times will fail to do so when the pavement is wet and slippery or ice makes driving hazardous. The motorist can work for his own safety and that of others by seeing that his brakes are equalized and in perfect condition."

Wise Policy to Avoid Bothering Carburetor

It still is wise policy to avoid tampering with the carburetor until every other means of boosting the engine's gas mileage has been tried. The carburetor usually is least to blame and many troubles can follow an improper adjustment. One owner tried all kinds of adjustments in an effort to increase the gas mileage of a light six from twelve to what would be normal for a machine of this type. He succeeded only in making matters worse, because he did not suspect that mileage loss was due to the spark timing being late.

It is an easy matter to make this mistake because usually when timing is slow an engine will seem to be powerful enough, provided the owner does not happen to try for speed. Some of the best hill-climbing machines are a little slow on spark timing. They will also run very slowly in high gear but will be found to be very deficient in high-speed performance.

"Leaf Skidding" Comes With Autumn Rainfalls

With the arrival of fall, "leaf skidding" takes its place as an additional hazard confronting car owners, points out the accident prevention department of the Chicago Motor club.

"Leaves on the highways frequently retain a large amount of water from recent rainfalls, even though the clean parts of the pavement may be dry," the department declared in a bulletin. "Although the top leaves may be dry, the wet, rotting foliage next to the pavement offers excellent possibilities for a disastrous skid. While the hazard is perhaps more serious in the country, where driving speeds are higher, the same conditions will be encountered in many sections of the city.

"Careful motorists will proceed on the theory that all leaves on streets and highways are rain-soaked, and drive accordingly."

Headlights in Daytime Unnecessary Practice

It is not advisable to turn the car's headlights on in the daytime.

In the early days batteries and generators were not in their present state of high development. Batteries were undersized and would charge fully with a few hours' driving. In order to avoid injuring batteries, it was often suggested to turn the lights on on long drives as a means to reduce the charging rate.

Today this practice is not needed. If a motorist is in the habit of taking unusually long and steady trips, he can have the generator charging rate reduced which automatically takes care of the situation.

There is only one way that a driver can tell if the battery is being overcharged and that is if it needs to be refilled with water more than once a week.

Another good bit of information for motorists to know about concerns spark plug gaps. If the car at any time operates with a jerky or uneven motion have the spark plug gaps examined as the electrodes probably are worn too far apart.

Fender Aprons Handy to Prevent Mud Splashing

A discarded inner tube supplies all material needed for fender aprons that will prove especially useful to prevent mud, tar, or slush from splashing all over the body. Cut a pair of heavy rubber bands from the tube, then split a portion of the tube lengthwise and cut the two aprons. The upper edge of the aprons should be sewed with pieces of wire to the rubber bands so that they will be held in place when the bands are snapped over the lower ends of the fenders.—Popular Science Monthly.

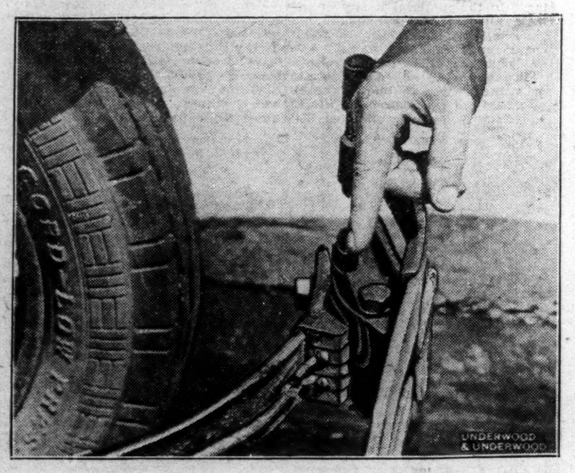
NEW DEVICE STOPS CAR IN SPLIT SECOND



UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

The electrical contact of the new safety device on the bumper. A slight pressure on the bumper causes the circuit to close, bringing the two copper spring contacts together, and stopping the car in a split second. When the bumper strikes an object, that is, the circuit closes and a spark from the coil sets the mechanism in operation: brakes are automatically applied and ignition is turned off. Further, the device may be operated from the dash by a button, in case the driver foresees an accident just a few feet ahead. A press of the button stops the car in a fraction of the time foot-brakes or emergency would. But at no time does the device interfere with the regular brakes. In close traffic, where the car may involuntarily slightly bump a car ahead, the device can be temporarily switched off. And when parked the bumper circuit is connected with the horn.

Timely Tip for Mothers and Wives

By EMMA LOU FETTA

WE had a good laugh at first when some one at the Home Fashion Institute suggested showing in "Today and Tomorrow in the Feminine World" a picture of a young man. But it is true that she who laughs best laughs last.

The accompanying illustration is being shown because we have discovered that not only do American women constitute between 85% and 90% of the actual purchasing power of this great country, but statistical surveys have proved that they are the greatest single and group influence in the purchases men make. This must inevitably mean that you know something about men's fashions, and that you like to "keep up" on the subject.

The young man in the picture is perfectly attired for golf, and with a change in knickers and shoes, he could be transformed for polo or tennis or any number of other American sports. The polo shirt, now usually found at very reasonable cost in strong, firm durene mesh, is becoming the classic shirt of the age—and for all masculine ages at that.

If one attempted at the beginning of 1930 to dash around to all the country clubs in the United States counting colors, types of neck lines, precise length of sleeve and number of buttons in front on the durene mesh sports shirts seen he would have had steady occupation. But he would have discovered that the most popular shades are beige, and pure white with light greens and yellows balanced second. Sleeves average just to, but not covering, the elbow; two buttons at the front and fairly wide pointed collars predominate. It may be added that eight out of every ten sport enthusiasts have adopted the open collar mode.

George A. Sisco, who as manager opened the A. & P. deluxe store, at E. 49th St. and Central Ave., and made it such a success, and who had worked for the company possibly twenty years, resigned on his return from his vacation the first of last week and is now associated with C. C. Simon, at 4707 Central Ave., where he will be pleased to see his many friends. George is an old Cleveland boy, and a worker if there ever was one. Mr. Simon is to be congratulated upon securing his services. Pass the word along to your friends and acquaintances so everyone will know where George is.

Just about a year ago at a meeting attended by Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, Larry Payne, County Commissioner Jack Harris, and at least one other, Payne pledged himself to support the Flemings for ward leaders in the 11th in return for Mrs. Fleming's withdrawal from the councilmanic race and her support of his candidacy. Both Commissioner Harris and Mrs. Fleming repeatedly publically called attention to this agreement, during the recent primary campaign, and Payne did not deny its existence. The Flemings kept their promise to the letter but Larry didn't keep his, as all know, but double-crossed the Flemings just as he and the other two "triplets" double-crossed their constituents in the Blossom matter. Therefore, who can believe "The Triplets"? What is their word worth?

While many of our people know the advantage of patronizing the Woodland-55th Market, there are many more who have never visited it and taken advantage of its exceptionally fine offers, some of which will be found noted in an advertisement elsewhere in this paper. The Gazette urges its readers to patronize this market because it is one of the cleanest, neatest and best conducted in the city, as well as being easily accessible with the assistance of the street-cars, using a transfer when necessary. Located near E. 55th St. on the south side of Woodland Ave., it is so very convenient to many thousands of our people in all parts of the city because of the street-car service, but particularly to those located in the southeastern quarter of Cleveland. The freshest and best of everything, at prices as low or lower than in any other market or store in the city, is always to be found in the Woodland-55th Market. Of course, always the most courteous treatment. Watch for its "food specials", every Saturday, and take advantage of them. Tell your friends of this good thing and get in the habit of using your street-car transfer if necessary to go to this market, if you are not in the habit of doing so. Save money and get the best goods and the best treatment. Mr. Curtice, the superintendent, is always "on the job" and careful to see that all patrons of the market receive proper treatment and proper service at all the stands or stalls.

OHIO MOB VIOLENCE.

The Cleveland Gazette, leading Afro-American weekly in Ohio, which has just begun its 48th year of publication without missing an issue (and published every week on time since Aug. 25, 1883), is extended hearty congratulations for this record, the most remarkable of which is that its editor and present owner entered the business with the establishment of the paper with the one object of using the power of the press to benefit his race through abolishing the evil of lynching and removing the black laws from the Ohio statute books, etc.

The Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor and owner of The Cleveland Gazette, served three terms in the Ohio legislature, during which time he introduced many bills of value but the one against mob violence and his Civil Rights bill, perhaps stand out as the greatest. The Ohio Supreme court has several times upheld the constitutionality of both laws, and they have been very effective to the extent that many other states have passed similar laws (one or both) patterned after Ohio's, notably the states of New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws in recent years.—Miss Delilah L. Beasley, a former resident of Ohio, in the Oakland (Cal.) Tribune, Sept. 14, '30.

An Appreciation.

Columbus, O., Sept. 13, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor Gazette, Cleveland.

My Dear Mr. Smith:—Just a little note to express to you my sincere appreciation of the fine publicity you gave me in "The Old Reliable" Gazette, in the issue of Aug. 23.

I do want you to know, however, that I appreciate the fine compliment you paid me and that I am grateful for the continued support you have given me thruout the years.

With kind personal regards, I am
Yours sincerely,
Clarence J. Brown,
Secretary of State.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO.

ARTICLE XII, SECTION 9.

PROPOSING TO AMEND SECTION 9 OF ARTICLE XII OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO, IN REGARD TO THE DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME AND INHERITANCE TAXES.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein:

That there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for their approval or rejection, in the manner provided by law, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1930, a proposal to amend section 9 of article XII of the constitution of the state of Ohio, to read as follows:

ARTICLE XII.

Sec. 9. Not less than fifty per centum of the income and inheritance taxes that may be collected by the state shall be returned to the county, school district, city, village, or township in which said income or inheritance tax originates, or to any of the same, as may be provided by law.

Adopted April 6, 1929.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
STATE OF OHIO.

Office of the Secretary of State.

I, CLARENCE J. BROWN, Secretary of State, of the State of Ohio, do hereby certify that the foregoing is copied from and carefully compared by me with the original Joint Resolution adopted by the 88th General Assembly of the State of Ohio on April 6th, 1929, and now on file in my office and in my official custody as Secretary of State, and found to be true and correct. Said Joint Resolution was filed in the office of the Secretary of State on April 16th, 1929, and proposes to amend section 9 of article XII of the constitution of the state of Ohio relating to the distribution of income and inheritance taxes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my official seal at Columbus, Ohio, this 18th day of September, A. D. 1930.

CLARENCE J. BROWN,
Secretary of State.
